

Sociopaths have no heart, no conscience and no remorse—and sometimes we engage with them for our own spiritual growth

LOVE FRAUD

How marriage to a sociopath fulfilled my spiritual plan
By Donna Andersen, author of Lovefraud.com

Love Fraud tells two parallel stories. The first is the outrageous story of Donna Andersen's marriage to a sociopathic con artist, James Montgomery. He took a quarter million dollars from her, cheated with at least six women during a two-and-a-half year marriage, had a child with one of them, and ten days after Andersen left him, married the mother of the child. It was the second time he committed bigamy.

The second story is about Andersen's personal spiritual journey. Seeking to understand why her life was ravaged, Andersen developed an ability to channel spiritual guidance, and learned that her soul planned the entire debacle. The object of the exercise was for her to experience and then release the devastating betrayal, so that she could return to wholeness.

In Love Fraud, you will discover:

1. The true nature of sociopaths: no heart, no conscience, no remorse.
2. How sociopaths deceive and manipulate their victims.
3. The limitations of laws and social institutions in dealing with sociopaths.
4. How metaphysical concepts play out in an individual life story.
5. How traumas from past lives affect our present life.
6. Why our souls choose painful lessons.

About the author

After graduating summa cum laude from Syracuse University with a degree in magazine journalism, Donna Andersen started her career as the first editor of Atlantic City Magazine, then founded Donna Andersen Copywriting Inc. In 2005, Andersen launched Lovefraud.com, a website that teaches people how to recognize and recover from sociopaths. Readers consider it the most helpful source on the Internet about sociopaths. Lovefraud has evolved into a healing community for those who have been targeted by these human predators. For more information, please visit Lovefraud.com, Lovefraud.com/blog and Lovefraud.com/book.
